Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on November 08, 2004 has been entered.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 6, line 1, the word "he" has been replaced with --The--.

The change serves to correct the obvious typographical error and places the case in condition for allowance.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The primary reason for allowance of claims 1 and 18 is that the prior art of record does not teach the protective enclosure or cover for a keyboard having a stretchable envelope-like structure including a top panel which comprises a thin, elastomeric and substantially transparent membrane in proximate contact with the keys of the keyboard and that the top panel does not correspond to the depressions or elevations of a specific keyboard array and retains a significant level of the touch or feel of the keyboard keys as argued by applicant in the Remarks (page 8, the third and fourth paragraphs).

The primary reason for allowance of claim 19 is that the prior art of record does not teach the operating steps of using the protective enclosure or cover for a keyboard having a stretchable envelope-like structure including a top panel which comprises a thin, elastomeric and substantially transparent membrane in proximate contact with the keys of the keyboard and that the top panel retains a significant level of the touch or feel of the keyboard keys as argued by applicant in the Remarks (page 9, the second paragraph).

The limitations of the claim are not rendered obvious by any proper combination of the prior art known to the Examiner.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
